Health Sciences Graduate Program
 College of Medicine
 University of Sasaktchewan

It is the expectation of the College of Medicine, and the Health Sciences Graduate Program, that students enrolled in a full time research program will receive a financial commitment from their supervisor in the form of a stipend. The terms, duration, and amount of the stipend are the discretion of the supervisor, and should be thoroughly discussed prior to the start of the student’s program. Any exceptions or deviations from this standard are subject to approval by the Assistant Dean of Graduate Studies.
