

An award that recognizes staff members who have enhanced the work environment of the College of Medicine

• The Sydney Inskip Service Award

SELECTION CRITERIA:

The Sydney Inskip Service Award is designed to recognize exceptional contributions by a non-academic staff member who is currently working at the College of Medicine. Criteria for selection of the individual include evidence of the following:

- Enhancement of the work environment by providing extraordinary service to the College of Medicine
- Inspiration, support and respect of the endeavors of others
- Distinction achieved through dedication and commitment

SELECTION COMMITTEE

The Selection Committee will be appointed by the Dean of Medicine and will include a representative from the following groups:

- Undergraduate Medical Students
- Postgraduate Medical Students
- College of Medicine Faculty
- Dean's Office Staff

NOMINATIONS

All members of the College of Medicine community are invited to nominate an employee for the Sydney Inskip Service Award. Each nomination should include a completed nomination form plus a minimum of one or more signed letters of support. These letters may be:

- From internal supporters such as students, coworkers, supervisors
- Signed by one or more individuals
- From external supporters as they relate to the work of the nominee at the College

For more information or nomination forms, contact Kelsey Kougiya at kelsey.kougiya@usask.ca or 306-966-5763. Completed nomination forms must be submitted to kelsey.kougiya@usask.ca by October 26, 2022.

