PATHWAYS TO SUCCESS FUNDING GUIDELINES

OVERVIEW OF THE FUNDING PROGRAM

Goal: To provide financial assistance and recognize academic performance of graduate students in the College of Medicine at the University Saskatchewan.

The "Pathways to Success" funding program is specifically designed for graduate students at the College of Medicine who face financial need, providing financial support to help them excel in their academic and professional endeavors. This program aims to enhance students' research opportunities, facilitate their participation in conferences and workshops, and aid in the development of essential skills that contribute to their future careers. By addressing financial barriers, "Pathways to Success" enables students to fully engage in their studies, conduct meaningful research, and contribute to the medical community.
