

Health Sciences Graduate Program
College of Medicine
University of Saskatchewan

It is the expectation of the College of Medicine and the Health Sciences Graduate Program that students enrolled in a full time research program will receive a financial commitment from their supervisor in the form of a stipend. Any scholarships, awards, or bursaries received by the student can be used to offset the supervisor's responsibility however the guarantee of minimum funding must be provided. Any exceptions or deviations from this standard are subject to approval by the Assistant Dean of Graduate Studies.
