

Some Key Roles of Clinical Teachers & Teaching Techniques

Role	Explanation	Teaching Technique
Professional/role model	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Demonstrates exemplary professional characteristics • Demonstrates effective patient interaction • Models decision making skills 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Deliberate Practice • Mentoring
Clinical Supervisor/coach	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Protects patient health & sensibilities • Structures the work & learning environment for opportunities for safe practice • Observes objectively & offers constructive feedback 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • SOAP Presentation • Microskills(Precepting) • Feedback
Teacher/patient educator	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Sets the goals & objectives for the learning experience • Organizes the learning activities that will result in a change in behaviour or thinking • Promotes problem solving & critical appraisal • Assesses the student's performance • Supports & encourages the learner 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Orientation • Microteaching • Procedural Skills Teaching (Concept Mapping) • Bedside Teaching • Assessment

Teaching techniques that I would like to try:
