

Candace Skrapek

Candace's background as a health care provider, administrator and nursing educator combined with her own health challenges and experiences as a patient have led to her involvement as a patient partner in a variety of health research initiatives. These include engagement with the Saskatchewan Centre for Patient Oriented Research, SPOR PIHCI Leadership Council, the U of S Respiratory Research Centre Patient and Family Advisory Council and three funded research projects.