

Myrna Briggs

Myrna Briggs is a teacher, coroner, and a Licensed Practical Nurse from Saskatoon, Saskatchewan. With many years of experience in the education, health, and voluntary sector, Myrna has a great interest in life-long learning. As part of life-long learning, Myrna completed a Master's in Educational Foundations, with a strong focus on adult education and anti-oppression. Myrna took part in a JLA priority Setting Partnership in summer of 2019 and found that this approach resonated with her. With family and friends diagnosed with obstructive sleep apnea, she is looking forward to being part of this group.
